

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

Installing, operating, or otherwise utilizing this device in any way, indicates the owner of this device and/or the vehicle it is installed in has read, and accepted, these terms and conditions and limits of liability and warranty. Use of this device is at the owner's own risk. Transfer of ownership of this device to another party must be accompanied by this statement.

Area 451 Parts Ltd. shall not be held liable for any damages whatsoever resulting from the use or installation of this product regardless of the cause, including but not limited to defect in material or workmanship, misuse or improper installation of the device, accident regardless of cause, or negligent or faulty design. The owner hereby waives all liability claims against Area 451 parts Ltd., its employees and directors, its partners and affiliates and its distributors and retailers except as specifically provisioned for in the form of a written product warrant, and then liability is limited only to the purchase price of the device excluding installation or any other costs or damages.

If you do not accept these terms, then you are required to return the device to your place of purchase prior to installation and within 14 days for a full refund of the purchase price of the device. If the retailer you have purchased the device from is not available or refuses a timely refund, then you may contact us directly for refund. Visit <http://Area451Parts.com> for current contact information.